

Agenda Festival

Join us at The Hurlingham Club on May 22nd
for an inspiring day filled with entertainment, music, fascinating speakers, plus exciting and helpful exhibitors.

Ours was the generation that really did have it all.
We wore miniskirts and bikinis during summers of love, slept with spies and travelled the world on a shoestring. We thought we knew it all. Now we really do! Let's carry on...

Doors open with a Bucks Fizz Breakfast from 9:30am and close at 4:00pm.

Talks cover the full gamut of how to make the most of later life,
from finance to lifestyle and everything in between.

In partnership with

THE CHELSEA
MAGAZINE
COMPANY
LTD

agenda
Life's Fine Time

Tickets £89 / £150 (two people)
agenda-festival.co.uk

Agenda Festival

Join Gyles Brandreth, Liz Earle, Kat Farmer, Victoria Mather, Harry Mount, Sarah & John Standing, Sam Williams and A.N.Wilson amongst an assorted array of glittering speakers, discussing:

- Now What?! Irreverent spiels on the impact of retirement and its preoccupations.
- Living It Up: what to do with your time and money, whether travel, learning or simply self-indulgence.
- Crossed Wires: how to cope with 21st Century intergenerational confusion, from jargon to tech.
- Flying Solo or Working in Tandem: practical advice on soaring into new adventures.
- Happy at 100: it can be done! Gyles Brandreth.
- Finding Experts: love 'em or hate 'em, how do you find them and why you should trust them?
- The Oldie Gang Show: editor and writer Harry Mount in conversation with friends.
- Keep Well, Stay Chic: Liz Earle & Kat Farmer talk about making the best of the second half of life.

Comedy Cabaret provided by James McConnel and Issy van Randwyck.

Exhibitors include: Audley Group, Auriens, Hamilton George, Hampden & Co, Kirker Holidays, St James's Place.

agenda
Life's Fine Time

Tickets £89 / £150 (two people)
agenda-festival.co.uk

